Vassiliki Kondou-Wilson Address supplied (on file)	Any	Thursday and Friday	Current English Teacher Health and Safety Rep	Sunderland Council Panel Member	I am undergoing a Prof Doc on researching schools and academies within the North East and hoping that both my teaching experience, ethos, as well as my knowledge of the profession would benefit any teaching environment.
Lucy Bennett Address supplied (on file)	Any	Evening			I have an interest in becoming a school governor as I feel strongly about education providing opportunity to not only the individuals attending but also their families and their local community. I hold a strong belief that education is vital in establishing sustainable communities.

					This is the strongest motivation for my application. On a personal level, I have grown up with a younger sister with a learning disability and have witnessed perhaps a more complex route through education with varying amounts of strengths and failings. I feel I can bring varied skills to the role including the ability to work well within a team and to contribute towards efficient decision making. I frequently during my job have to identify opportunities which possess a social impact and also value for money and I feel comfortable doing so. My 'working personality' is geared towards innovation and challenging ineffective processes.
Andrew Gray Address supplied (on file)	Washington Area	Any time any day.	Currently in FE - IT Apprenticeship	Scouts Volunteer SVP Shop Volunteer	None
Amanda Wilson Address supplied (on file)	Any school in SR5 area.	Full	I was made redundant in July where I worked as a bank team manager and have since went on to study to be a teaching assistant. I believe I have the transferable skills to work well with the team of governors. I can commit my time to help out with the school where needed. I have seen the amazing job all staff do in my sons school and where I am on placement and would love the opportunity to be part of this and make a difference	No	The teaching assistant course I am attending, along with my placement has gave me an insight into the education system and how it is ran. It has made me feel very passionate about becoming a governor and feel it would help me in a role of a school governor
Christine Reed Address supplied (on file)	Hill View Infant School	Any time any day.	Wide experience within the state sector, mostly in F.E. but also in secondary, and briefly primary. I have worked with learners of all abilities and all age ranges from 3-70+. From 1999-	Bishopwearmouth Choral Society and Sunderland Conservatives	I believe in being an active citizen who makes a real contribution to the community. If I am appointed I would be a very conscientious and positive member of the board of governors. I will always put the needs of the children first and will always be

			2010 I worked at Sunderland College, .I was a specialist tutor for A level students A level students. I was also a member of Academic Board. Both my children attended Hill View Infants School and I was a parent volunteer for a time.		supportive of the staff.
