

CONSIDERATION OF CANDIDATES FOR INCLUSION ON APPROVED LIST AT A MEETING OF THE EDUCATION (APPOINTMENT OF GOVERNORS) PANEL HELD ON 12TH OCTOBER 2020

Name and occupation (address supplied on file)	Is there a particular school (or schools) that you would like to serve as an Authority governor?	What commitment can you give to the role of Authority Governor?	Do you have any previous educational (or other) experience, which will assist you in the role of Authority Governor?	Are you a member of any local voluntary groups or organisations, or are you involved in any community activities?	Are there any additional comments that you would like to make in support of your application to become an Authority Governor?
James Clark Doyle Occupation: City Councillor / Real Estate Professional	Seaburn Dene Primary School	I work full time and serve part time as a local councillor. I can commit to termly meetings, as well as sub-committee meetings where necessary. It is my intention to play as much of an active role in school life as possible.	I currently serve as the Local Authority governor on the governing board of Fulwell Junior School. My role as a city councillor has also given me some experience in education policy.	I am involved in a number of voluntary and community sector organisations by virtue of my role on Sunderland City Council.	None.
Cllr Doris Turner	Hetton Lyons Nursery School	Cllr Turner is committed member the Governing Board and wishes to continue in this role.
Thomas Newton Insurance Agent	Seaburn Dene Primary School/schools in Fulwell area	I can devote a significant amount of free time due to flexible workplace hours.	I have worked with both Sunderland's children's services and elected officials to commission a children's mental health charter mark. Furthermore, I have worked with the Make Your Mark campaign founded by the British Youth Council to give young people aged 11 to 18 a voice in their city and the ability to make real and	I have work intently with Fulwell community library for a number of years which has allowed me to see the true benefit local libraries give not just two older people but also in nurturing a love of of books and reading from a very young age. As someone who still	I believe my experiences and track record in delivering upon the best for our young people and our local services gives me an edge to work closely with the local authority and school governors going forward.

			lasting change for their own and future generations. This has ranged from public transport to improving the lives of young LGBT people varying topics of discussion insure that no one issue gets the full spotlight. In 2015 I was elected deputy head boy my secondary school which allowed me to act as an intermediary voice between school leadership coming most notably from the headmaster to the wider student body. as part of Sunderland's youth Council I attended many meetings of the children's services scrutiny committee as a as a voice of young people to give comment upon or ask about services that affect young people from fostering and adoption to schools and child safeguarding measures. One highlight as a member of the committee was to hear and speak to Sir Paul Ennalals, who chairs the regional safeguarding committee, this was in regards to the recent rollout of universal credit which according to Sir Paul would cause a detriment to the well-being of young people in the city especially those already classed more vulnerable due to to extreme poverty.	considers themselves to be rather young I have seen this first-hand with my peers.
